

Room Mates

| By Sophie Donelson |

How will you decorate in 2010? With a dash of neon and a spoonful of whimsy, according to the debuts at the International Contemporary Furniture Fair, better known as ICFF. Tucked among the 500 booths in the Javits Center in New York are five must-have standouts. Can't score a trade badge? Hit the fair May 18 and try snagging sleek floor models—no designer wants to freight a sofa back to Frankfurt anyway. M
